

WASHINGTON COUNTY DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES

Family Investment Specialist I – Family Investment Division

Washington County DSS is recruiting for a Family Investment Specialist I position. Pay ($26,429) and benefits provided by Housing Authority of Washington County, supervision by WCDSS.

Nature of Work:

A Family Investment Specialist I is the entry level of work providing direct services to individual customers or families by determining customer eligibility for multiple Family Investment Administration programs in a local Department of Social Services. Employees interview customers to explain program requirements and options, to collect and complete required documentation, to refer customers to other program services or agencies as appropriate and to monitor customer progress and use of assistance. Employees in this classification do not supervise.

Employees receive close supervision from a Family Investment Specialist Supervisor or other higher-level administrator. Employees may be required to work evenings and weekends and may be required to visit customers in their homes or at facilities such as nursing homes, group homes and hospitals.

Position placement to this classification is determined by the Classification Job Evaluation Methodology. The use of this method involves comparing the assigned duties and responsibilities of a position to the job criteria found in the Nature of Work and Examples of Work sections of a classification specification.

The Family Investment Specialist I and the Family Investment Specialist II are differentiated on the basis of the degree of supervisory control exercised by the supervisor over these employees. The Family Investment Specialist I performs duties under close supervision. The Family Investment Specialist II performs the full range of duties under general supervision.

Examples of Work:

Learns to interview applicants for Public Assistance, Medical Assistance and/or Food Stamps in the Family Investment Administration (FIA) of the Department of Human Resources in order to determine customer eligibility and need for FIA programs;

Learns to explain program requirements and procedures to individual customers or in a group setting;

Learns to elicit information as to family composition, employment, health status, financial obligations, parental status and living arrangements;

Learns to calculate incomes and resources to establish benefit level;

Learns to determine program eligibility in accordance with federal, State and local laws, policies, rules and regulations;

Learns to check public records, such as birth records and real estate transactions;

Learns to contact individuals, employers, landlords, attorneys, financial institutions, medical offices, and government and community agencies to obtain, verify or clarify information required for eligibility determinations, such as income, resources, residency and household composition;

Learns to establish and maintain case records using computerized database systems;

Learns to contact customers regarding discrepancies and refer questionable cases to the fraud unit for further follow-up;

Learns to monitor case progress and apply appropriate sanctions when necessary;

Learns to provide information on and make referrals to service agencies, organizations and vendors for appropriate services and information to meet customer health, housing, food, employment assistance, child care and transportation needs;

Learns to serve as a customer advocate;

Learns to provide basic counseling and problem solving support;

May learn to make visits to customers' homes to gather information;

May learn to prepare appeal packages or testify in administrative appeals hearings;

Performs other related duties.

Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

Knowledge of the impact of poverty and related sociological and health problems;

Ability to use computer applications; Ability to prepare clear, accurate and detailed reports;

Ability to learn Family Investment Administration program areas and services;

Ability to learn interviewing and communication techniques;

Ability to learn, understand and explain complex federal, State and local policy, requirements, guidelines, procedures and regulations;

Ability to establish and maintain professional working relationships with customers, staff members, other agencies and institutions and the general public;

Ability to effectively organize and manage work assignments and meet deadlines;

Ability to meet required performance goals and accuracy expectations;

Ability to keep eligibility and personal information confidential.

Minimum Qualifications:

Education: Possession of a Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.

Experience: None.

Notes:

1. Applicants may substitute public contact experience involving negotiating, interviewing, explaining information, gathering and compiling data, performing analysis of data, writing correspondence, and completing mathematical or legal tasks on a year-for-year basis for up to four years of the required education.
2. Applicants may substitute possession of an associate of arts degree in Income Maintenance and two years of experience involving public contact and performance of support functions directly related to income maintenance program operations for the required education.
3. These requirements are established by the Family Investment Administration by authority provided in Human Services Article Title 5, Subtitle 2, Section 204 (b)(1) of the Annotated Code of Maryland. The Department of Budget and Management, Office of Personnel Services and Benefits and the Department of Human Resources Examination Services Unit do not have the authority to accept substitutions or equivalents.

To Apply: Interested candidates must complete a Washington County Internal Application for Non-Merit Washington County Department of Social Services Position at <http://www.dhr.state.md.us/blog/wp-content/uploads/2013/09/Internal-Application-for-Washington-County-Department-of-Social-Services-Non-Merit-Position.pdf> and submit via email to washingtonco.jobs@maryland.gov no later than March 4, 2016